Absci Reports Business Updates and Third Quarter 2023 Financial and Operating Results

Entered into partnership with Almirall to rapidly develop novel treatments for dermatological diseases, for up to $664M in deal value, plus royalties

Unveiled AI drug creation pipeline of four wholly-owned assets

VANCOUVER, Wash. and NEW YORK, November 14, 2023 – Absci Corporation (Nasdaq: ABSI), a generative AI drug creation company, today reported financial and operating results for the quarter ended September 30, 2023.

"Our recent achievements further demonstrate the value and power of our AI Integrated Drug Creation[™] platform, as we entered into an innovative new collaboration with Almirall and proudly unveiled our internal pipeline of drug creation assets," said Sean McClain, Founder and CEO. "With these significant new partnered programs, the four wholly-owned assets we are currently advancing, and our expectation of additional new partnered programs this year, I believe we are well positioned to execute on our near- and longer-term objectives."

Recent Highlights

- Entered into a partnership with Almirall aimed to develop and commercialize AI-designed therapeutics to fight chronic and debilitating dermatological diseases. Under the terms of the partnership, Absci will apply its de novo generative AI technology to create and commercialize therapeutic candidates for two dermatological targets. In addition to product royalties, Absci is eligible to receive up to $664 million in upfront fees, R&D, and post-approval milestone payments across the two programs if all milestones are successfully completed.
- Unveiled AI drug creation pipeline of four wholly-owned asset programs focused on cytokine biology, including three potential best-in-class and one potential first-in-class assets. Each of these four programs has the potential to reach investigational new drug (IND) filing stage in 2025, with the first in early 2025.
- Advancing internal drug creation programs and expect to disclose data on ABS-101, a potential best-in-class TL1A antagonist, in early 2024.

Third Quarter 2023 Financial Results

Revenue was $0.7 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 compared to $2.4 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022. This decrease was driven by partnered program mix and progress timing.

Research and development expenses were $11.0 million for the third quarter of 2023 compared to $15.5 million for the corresponding prior year period. This decrease was primarily driven by lower laboratory operational costs, increased efficiencies, and a prioritized focus within Absci's R&D efforts.

Selling, general, and administrative expenses were $9.5 million for the third quarter of 2023 compared to $11.4 million for the corresponding prior year period. This decrease was primarily due to reductions in personnel and insurance costs.

Net loss was $22.0 million for the third quarter of 2023, as compared to $27.3 million for the corresponding prior year period.

Cash, cash equivalents, and short-term investments as of September 30, 2023 was $113.5 million, compared to $124.6 million as of June 30, 2023.

2023 Outlook

Absci continues to anticipate at least ten new Active Programs in 2023, based on the company's current partnership pipeline. Absci also expects to generate more cash from execution on partnered programs this year and going forward, as compared to prior years, given the shift from cell line development to discovery programs.

Following the previously announced organizational realignment, Absci expects a gross use of cash, cash equivalents, and shortterm investments, exclusive of partnered program and equipment financing receipts, of approximately $80 million for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2023, below prior year use of $105 million. Absci also continues to focus its investments and operations on strategic initiatives and near-term inflection points, providing cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments into late 2025, consistent with previous disclosures.

About Absci

Absci is a generative AI drug creation company that combines AI with scalable wet lab technologies to create better biologics for patients, faster. Our Integrated Drug Creation[™] platform unlocks the potential to accelerate time to clinic and increase the probability of success by simultaneously optimizing multiple drug characteristics important to both development and therapeutic benefit. With the data to learn, the AI to create, and the wet lab to validate, we can screen billions of cells per week, allowing us to go from AI-designed antibodies to wet lab-validated candidates in as little as six weeks. Our vision is to deliver breakthrough therapeutics at the click of a button, for everyone. Absci's headquarters is in Vancouver, WA, with our AI Research Lab in New York City and an Innovation Center in Zug, Switzerland. Visit www.absci.com and follow us on LinkedIn (@absci), X (Twitter) (@Abscibio), and YouTube.

Almirall and Absci announce AI drug discovery partnership to rapidly develop novel treatments for dermatological diseases

The collaboration expands Absci's de novo AI drug creation portfolio into dermatology and accelerates discovery for broader chronic inflammatory diseases

VANCOUVER, Wash. and BARCELONA, Spain, November 14, 2023 – Absci Corporation (Nasdaq: ABSI), a generative AI drug creation company, and Almirall S.A. (BME: ALM), a global biopharmaceutical company focused on medical dermatology, today announced a drug discovery partnership aimed to develop and commercialize AI-designed therapeutics to fight chronic and debilitating dermatological diseases. The partnership combines Absci's Integrated Drug Creation™ platform with AlmiralI's dermatological expertise with the goal of delivering life-changing medicines to patients, marking another step forward in AI drug creation.

The partnership represents Almirall's first de novo Al drug collaboration, and it comes only months after Absci announced it could design and validate de novo therapeutic antibodies using its 'zero-shot' generative Al. Under the terms of the partnership, Absci will apply its de novo generative Al technology to create and commercialize therapeutic candidates for two dermatological targets. In addition to product royalties, Absci is eligible to receive up to approximately $650 million in upfront fees, R&D, and post-approval milestone payments across the two programs if all milestones are successfully completed.

"Almirall chose Absci because their de novo platform brings truly novel innovation in solving the industry's most challenging targets facing high unmet medical need," said Almirall Executive VP of R&D and CSO Dr. Karl Ziegelbauer. "Our partnership underlines Almirall's commitment to target innovative approaches to help patients suffering from severe skin diseases to achieve their dream of leading a healthy life."

"Our partnership with Almirall marks an important leap forward for dermatologic drug development and is poised to transform the lives of millions managing skin conditions," said Absci Founder and CEO Sean McClain. "We believe the collaboration will generate tremendous scientific and technical insights for using AI drug creation to treat chronic inflammatory diseases more broadly. Working with a global leader and visionary in skin disease on this ambitious project will accelerate our journey in creating better biologics for a broad range of diseases affecting millions daily."

About Absci

Absci is a generative AI drug creation company that combines AI with scalable wet lab technologies to create better biologics for patients, faster. Our Integrated Drug Creation[™] platform unlocks the potential to accelerate time to clinic and increase the probability of success by simultaneously optimizing multiple drug characteristics important to both development and therapeutic benefit. With the data to learn, the AI to create, and the wet lab to validate, Absci can screen billions of cells per week, allowing it to go from AI-designed antibodies to wet lab-validated candidates in as little as six weeks. Absci's vision is to deliver breakthrough therapeutics at the click of a button, for everyone. Absci's headquarters is in Vancouver, WA, its AI Research Lab is in New York City and its Innovation Center in Zug, Switzerland.
